ROSIE'S CAR SPECIAL!

“HELLO ROSIE!”

How does it feel to be starring in your first-ever special edition?
Hello! Well I feel very happy about it, of course! I never ever thought when I started out that I'd have my own special magazine one day, so I'm honoured. I guess it's a great way to say thanks to the readers for all their support over the years.

This is hot on the heels of the Lucy Pinder special. Did you enjoy that one?
I did, indeed. Pinder is a boob legend, isn't she? I think I might put a poster of her on my wall. It's amazing that she's done so well for so long. She probably has the most famous boobs ever!

Do you recall your first-ever Nuts shoot?
I remember my first shoot pretty well. I wasn't nervous at all – in fact, it all came pretty naturally. It was in a beautiful, big house and with the same team of people I do shoots with now, so it's nice how we've got to know each other so well over the years. We're like a big family.

How excited were you to be in Nuts?
At first, I just felt excited that I was getting my make-up done and got to choose lots of nice underwear! It was great to see my first shoot in the actual mag. I remember at the time thinking that would be it – but look where we are now!

Do you still get surprised when you see yourself on a magazine cover?
You'd think it'd be really strange, but because I know all the girls that are on the covers it's just normal now. I just think, 'Oh hello, Rosie! Or Lucy, Holly or whoever it is. You look hot!' I do still get a bit embarrassed buying my own issues, though. I've even been asked for ID before when it was me on the cover!

Incredible! What's been the most awesome thing to happen to you since you started modelling?
There have been so many things! I've climbed mountains, jumped out of planes, learned to shoot guns and travelled the world… You'd be surprised to hear it's been a lot of hard work, too, but it's all been a non-stop fantastic experience.

When did you get used to becoming a sex symbol?
When did that happen?! Ha-ha! I'll never get used to that! I don't really think about it, to be honest, so I find it all quite amusing!

Do you get recognised in the street all the time?
Not all the time – not when I'm popping to the shop in my onesie! Us Nuts girls get recognised more when we're all dolled-up together, but then people are too scared to talk to us! It can be a bit weird if I'm on the train and someone has Nuts and keeps doing double-takes at me.

Are you and your fellow Nuts babes still up to mischief when you go out together?
Yup! When we go out and people ask us what we do, I'll say I'm a dentist or something. When they say I look like that model Rosie from Nuts, I just pretend I've no idea who they're talking about!

So which has been your favourite Nuts shoot?
It was at Millwall FC with Emma Glover, Emma Frain, India Reynolds and Leah Francis. It was a boiling hot day, and we just spent all day running around throwing water on each other and streaking across the pitch!

What's the best thing about shooting for Nuts?
The fact that I've met some of my best friends through my Nuts shoots. It's a wonderful thing when you can say that you really look forward to going to work in the morning. But I also enjoy the lunches. Nuts, thanks for all the food you've provided me with over the years. Ha-ha!

We're excited about this special being available in the new-fangled digital form. Do you have an iPad?
I love my iPad. It comes everywhere with me because, with Nuts, you see extra pictures to the ones in the mag and cool videos. I mainly use it for watching TV, reading books and Twitter.

What would your ultimate shoot involve?
Well, we'd get a private plane with the whole Nuts crew, and I'd like a few readers to have the chance to come along to experience the fun. We'd fly to our own island and do an amazing beach shoot. I'd probably have a few cool props in the shoot, too, like a monkey and an elephant.

We'll see what we can do. Which other Nuts babes would you like to see starring in their own special?
It definitely has to be Holly Peers and India. Both are legends in every sense of the word!

What Rosie-endorsed products could you release?
Maybe some sort of alcohol? It could have a picture of me on the bottle and as you drink it my clothes come off! And maybe a Rosie Jones hangover kit, I'd definitely invest in those.

You famously love pizza. What about a Rosie Jones pizza cookbook?
Amazing idea. Although pizza isn't exactly hard to cook, is it? And I'm sure most people would just order a Domino's. I make a mean chilli, and an amazing stir-fry, I don't live off pizza, you know.

Well thanks for the chat, Rosie. All that's left for you to do is to introduce your very finest shoots…
Yes, this bit is very exciting. I hope you enjoy viewing these pictures as much as I enjoyed making them!

PLAYFUL ROSIE!
